TasteBuds Culinary, Inc. Selected for The Restaurant at the 2016 Pasadena Showcase House of Design

PASADENA, Calif. Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts (PSHA) has selected TasteBuds Culinary, Inc. to cater this year's Restaurant at Showcase, The Berkshire. Conveniently located on the property, the contemporary bistro boasts mountain views and fresh, made-to-order selections. In addition, guests can relax at the Saffron Lounge, a casual Moroccan style bar. Originally a speakeasy during Prohibition, this lower level lounge offers gourmet grab-and-go prepared foods that can be enjoyed inside or out. And for a real Showcase experience, Town & Country designed both spaces into two distinct dining venues.

"TasteBuds is a favorite among Showcase guests and we are excited to be participating with them again," said 2016 Benefit Chair Marilyn Campbell Anderson.

Under the direction of co-owners, Natalia Ramirez and Melissa Corkern Davis, TasteBuds has created an eclectic California-style fare menu. Breakfast includes an assortment of fresh-baked pastries, fruits and yogurt parfait. The lunch menu is full of flavorful soups, garden salads and gourmet sandwiches. And for dinner, guests can enjoy a range of savory delights ranging from New York steak frites to gourmet salads with grilled salmon.

New this year, on Friday and Saturday evenings, guests can order small bite plates to share with friends. For those who prefer a full dining experience, there will be a selection of delicious entrees to choose from.

"We are excited about this year's new offering of small plates and the unique setting, the Saffron Lounge. The lounge is going to be a great place to relax with friends and enjoy a specialty cocktail and Happy Hour snack," said Showcase House Restaurant Co-Chairs Annette Sellon and Karen Butcher.

Guests can revisit The Restaurant at Showcase without a ticket any time that Showcase is open to the public. The 2016 Showcase House will be open to the public April 17 to May 15, 2016. Tickets cost between $35-$45. To purchase tickets, or for more information about PSHA, please visit www.pasadenashowcase.org. All visitors to Showcase House must be 12 years of age and older. Flat shoes only.

Pasadena Showcase House of Design is one of the oldest, largest, and most successful house and garden tours in the country. This year, we will be revisiting a Mission Revival estate that exudes stately elegance and pervades a sense of early California style.

About Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts

An all-volunteer organization, PSHA is a non-profit California Corporation whose members donate their time and talents to produce the annual Pasadena Showcase House of Design, one of the oldest, largest and most successful house and garden tours in the nation. PSHA celebrated the milestone of its fiftieth Showcase House in 2014. Founded in 1948, the organization has donated over $20 million to provide music programs in the community. Examples include the underwriting of concerts, choral productions, musical theater, opera, jazz quartets, marching bands, and orchestras at local schools, senior centers, and many other non-profit organizations. Additionally, a staple part of PSHA's program is music therapy for at-risk children, scholarships for young musicians, and music education at a variety of levels. This is in addition to their longstanding support of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Association. They also produce three highly regarded annual music programs: Music Mobile™, Instrumental Competition, and Youth Concert. An essential part of PSHA's mission is to nurture the study and appreciation of music and to ensure that music is available to a broad range of audiences. For over 65 years, PSHA has funded and produced programs that have enriched the lives of countless people and brought a lasting legacy to the community.
