THE SHOPS AT SHOWCASE TO FEATURE 18 VENDORS Proceeds Fund Programs Supported by the Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts

PASADENA, Calif. — Every year, part of the Pasadena Showcase House of Design tradition is visiting The Shops at Showcase. This year, The Shops will feature 18 merchants from throughout California who have been hand-selected for their quality merchandise. Appealing to visitors' varied tastes, The Shops will offer a wide-range of items at varying price points, including jewelry, luxury linens, gourmet food items, clothing, and an assortment of gifts.

“The Shops is a Showcase highlight where many of our guests wait a full year to buy their favorite items,” said Barbara Damerel, co-chair of The Shops at Showcase. “The best part of The Shops is that a portion of the sales goes to supporting PSHA-supported music programs,” said Stephani Tyler, co-chair of The Shops at Showcase.

A portion of sales is donated to the Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts (PSHA) to support its music programs. Twenty-five percent of the total purchase is tax deductible as a charitable contribution.

This year, The Shops at Showcase will feature: BedHead Pajamas (charming pajamas for the whole family), Designer Sterling (unique sterling and gemstone jewelry), D.J. Giles (fashionable wraps and accessories), Jean Waters Fine Accessories (one of a kind fashion items), Lavender Blue (French provincial linens and accessories and gifts), Louise's Hats (straw and fabric hats and totes), Mark & Stephens (gourmet food items), Model Metalworks (handmade pine baskets, pewter, and hospitality items), Paco Soler (tapestry, chenille, and linen jackets, tops and shirts), Susie O's (handsome handbags and wallets), The Bee Cottage (unique home décor featuring silk wreaths and arrangements), The Treasured Accessory (jewelry that only looks expensive), Tuck by Mary C. Hodgen (elegant and casual designer clothing), Calabasas Candy Company (yummy homemade candy and cookies), Gourmet Blends (the best flavored oil and vinegar anywhere), Herban Inc. (organic spa products), JP Designs (hand crafted and designed for a unique look), and Veronica's Garden (floral inspired home and garden décor).

Guests can revisit The Shops at Showcase without a ticket any time that Showcase is open to the public. The 2016 Showcase House will be open to the public April 17 to May 15, 2016. Tickets cost between $35-$45. To purchase tickets, or for more information about PSHA, please visit www.pasadenashowcase.org. All visitors to Showcase House must be 12 years of age and older. Flat shoes only.

Pasadena Showcase House of Design is one of the oldest, largest, and most successful house and garden tours in the country. This year, we will be revisiting a Mission Revival estate that exudes stately elegance and pervades a sense of early California style.

About Pasadena Showcase House for the Arts

An all-volunteer organization, PSHA is a non-profit California Corporation whose members donate their time and talents to produce the annual Pasadena Showcase House of Design, one of the oldest, largest and most successful house and garden tours in the nation. PSHA celebrated the milestone of its fiftieth Showcase House in 2014. Founded in 1948, the organization has donated over $20 million to provide music programs in the community. Examples include the underwriting of concerts, choral productions, musical theater, opera, jazz quartets, marching bands, and orchestras at local schools, senior centers, and many other non-profit organizations. Additionally, a staple part of PSHA's program is music therapy for at-risk children, scholarships for young musicians, and music education at a variety of levels. This is in addition to their longstanding support of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Association. They also produce three highly regarded annual music programs: Music Mobile™, Instrumental Competition-and Youth Concert. An essential part of PSHA's mission is to nurture the study and appreciation of music and to ensure that music is available to a broad range of audiences. For over 65 years, PSHA has funded and produced programs that have enriched the lives of countless people and brought a lasting legacy to the community.
